

SLOW STOICS

About

Hailing from Omaha, NE, the Slow Stoics are a young jam band that incorporates their raw sounds with improvisation to achieve their signature sound they like to call, "Celestial Crunk." They have played with bands, like Aqueous, Cycles, Cornmeal, Jon Wayne & the Pain, Ripe, Flux Capacitor, Kind Country, Frogleg, Evanoff, Linear Symmetry, and Groovement, to name a few. Along with playing at some of the top venues and festivals in their home state of Nebraska, the Slow Stoics went on a Colorado tour in Summer 2017, as well as a Midwest Spring tour in 2018. With a growing repertoire of colorful, groovy songs, and a steady schedule of local and regional shows, they are looking to expand their presence in the Midwest.
